In Loving Remembrance
Bishop Harry Jennings, Sr.

Harry J. Jennings was born to the proud parents of Drayton and Alice Jennings, on January 1, 1910 in Orangeburg County, South Carolina. Harry Jennings was educated in the Orangeburg Public School System. Harry Jennings initially learned the ways of the Lord in the Baptist Church. He served as Sunday School Superintendent, and was licensed to preach at Grace Chapel Baptist Church, Adams Run, South Carolina. He served faithfully at Grace Chapel until his Holiness Experience.

In 1931 Mr. Harry J. Jennings united in holy matrimony to his wife of 69 years, the late Mother Luvenue Jennings, to this union was born three sons: Harry J. Jennings, Jr., who preceded him in death; Bishop Jessie J. Jennings of Charleston, South Carolina, and California Northwest Administrative Assistant John A. Jennings of Richmond, California.

Harry learned the skill of farming and was employed as a Farm Supervisor in Orangeburg County, South Carolina. In 1936, upon recommendation of the doctor for the benefit of the health of Mother Jennings, the family relocated to Moberry, South Carolina to take advantage of the coastal water climate. He was also employed in the lumber industry, at the Naval Shipyard as a pipe fitter, construction, and his final employment was with the Charles Webb Cripple Children Society as the Supervisor of Transportation & Custodial Services.

In 1949, in Brooklyn, New York, Mr Harry J. Jennings, Sr. was Saved, Sanctified, and filled with the Holy Ghost. He returned to Adams Run, and with the help of Mother Jennings, established the first Holiness Church in the community. Elder Harry J. Jennings, Sr. was ordained and appointed to pastor, (then) Mount Calvary Church of God in Christ (currently) Nazareth Holiness Church Number One (the church he built from the ground up), by the late Bishop J.W. Wilson. Because of his faithfulness and dedication to the work, Bishop Wilson appointed him Superintendent of the Orangeburg District. Superintendent Jennings served faithfully and effectively as a Superintendent for 28 years.

In 1975 the Lord directed Bishop Harry J. Jennings, Sr. to establish and preside over the Nazareth Holiness Church of Deliverance, Inc. The church has been effective and has grown and prospered spiritually and materially under his leadership. Bishop Jennings was a man of impeccable integrity, with a saintly devotion to the work of the Lord. He never compromised with the word of the Lord. He was loved, admired, and highly respected by multitudes in the areas in which he served.

He leaves to cherish his memories, two sons, Bishop Jessie J. Jennings(wife ~ Mary) of Charleston, South Carolina and California Northwest Administrative Assistant John A. Perhaps you...

Perhaps you sang a song, or came and sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent flowers; if so, we saw them there.
Perhaps you sent some comforting words, or helped us pray.
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Perhaps you prepared some tasty food.
Perhaps you rendered a service unseen, right here or afar.
Whatever you did to help console our hearts,
we thank you sincerely ~ whatever the part.
